

4. The written safety program and all training programs required pursuant to this section must be conducted and made available employee.

5. The administrator of the division shall adopt regulations establishing the minimum requirements for a written safety program.

6. The administrator of the division shall develop and provide each employer with a written guide for establishing a written safety program.

7. An employer who contracts with a temporary employment service shall provide specialized training concerning safety for the employees of the service before they begin work at each site or as soon as possible thereafter.

8. An employer who has 10 or fewer employees is exempted from the provisions of this section unless the employer has employees engaged in the manufacture of explosives.

9. For the purposes of this section, an employer in the mining industry shall not be deemed to be a manufacturer of explosives.

10. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 11, as used in this section, ““explosives”” means gunpowders, powders used other than electric circuit breakers, detonators and other detonating agents, smokeless powders, other explosive or incendiary devices and any chemical compound, mechanical mixture or device that contains any oxidizing and combustible

NAC 618.542 Records of written safety program.

1. An employer who establishes a written safety program shall keep written records of:

(a) The safety and health issues which are discussed at the meetings of the safety committee, if he is required to establish such a committee;

(b) The attendance of those persons who participate in the meetings of the safety committee; and

(c) The attendance of employees participating in the training programs.

2. The records must be:

(a) Maintained for 3 years; and

(b) Available for review by the division of industrial relations of the department of business and industry upon request.

(Added to NAC by Div. of Industrial Relations, eff. 11-5-93)